The Memory Book of the Senior Class of Rosary College 1957

Co – Editors Mary Alice Ryan Sue Rutherford

> Business Manager Julie Phillips

Art Editor Barbara Roeser

to our parents and

of rosary college

To our parents

Who have formed our ideals. . .

To our teachers

Who have guided us in our pursuits . . .

To our parents

Who have sacrificed their time, money, and pleasures For our Rosary education . . .

To our teachers

Who have sacrificed unselfishly, hours of each day To our many endeavors . . .

To our parents and teachers

Without whose help, these memories would never be ours . . .

For them

We ask God's blessing . . .

To them

We, the class of 1957, express our prayerful gratitude And dedicate this Memory Book, "Act IV", In thoughtful appreciation.

Dear Seniors,

Remember our prayer for you Be as womanly as Mary Be as faithful as the Virgin Mary Be as loyal as Mary of Nazareth Be as holy as the Mother of God.

Wm. B. Murphy, O.P.

Dear Seniors:

When you become graduates of Rosary College, you will be our letter to the world, a message "written not on tables of stone but on the fleshly tables of the heart," carrying truth and charity to a disturbed world.

We shall pray that you may hold to your convictions and, as daughters of the Queen of the Rosary, share with others through word and action the light and happiness that are yours.

Affectionately yours in Our Lady, Sister M. Timothea. O.P.

Dear Seniors,

The Lord keep thee from all evil; may the Lord keep thy soul. May the Lord keep thy coming in and thy going out; from henceforth now and forever. Psalm 120.

Sister M. Fredericus, O.P.

My dear Seniors,

Soon you will graduate. The prospect of your doing so has led me to muse "Who is the Rosary graduate?" I have seen her fill varied roles. She is the sister in the white or black, brown or grey habit of religion. She is the mother, seemingly casually, always courageously, bringing up her children. She is the doctor caring for body and spirit. She is the teacher helping to stimulate the intellectual development of her students. She is the American version of Anne O'Hare McCormick's "Woman with a Broom", cleaning up the world at home.

In a very little while you will take your place beside her. May you play the role fully and happily, bringing rich blessings to yourselves, your families, your college, your parish, and your country.

Sister M. Candida, O.P.

Bag and baggage we come back to school
To spend our last year under Dominican rule
A tinge of sadness grabbed the senior heart
And yet - in a way - we were anxious to start
A new year - new Freshman friends, new tales
to tell

We hoped '56-57 would work out well.

WE SHALL ALWAYS REMEMBER

the joy of returning . . .

discussing latest accomplishments . . .

kindling the fires of Torch . . .

beginning our last vear in the Perfect Wav . . .

October, at our college Is especially Mary's own And Rosary Sunday is the day Our candles light her home.

Then comes our season's heavy date The Father-Daughter Dinner And though our memories grew fat Our waistlines were no thinner.

The month was gaily ushered out The last night of them all When Spooks and Spectres came to shout And haunt our hallowed hall.

When November comes around
We're feeling rather gay
Collecting dates for the Charity Ball
And putting the books away.
But when we put on our caps and gowns
That first time Founder's Day
We remember at last that we're Seniors . . .
And Commencement's not too far away.

Father Matthew Kelly . . .

December brought stiff comps for some, The 15th dawned - reckoning day had come Of Soc, History and language we had our fill-And celebration afterward filled the bill.

"My Fair Lady" took a fawncy turn.

For "Shaw Nuff" - Shaw in his grave might burn
But the Christmas Party Spirit put us in the mood
And we raised the Holiday roof but goood.

Final exams - What a scare!
But then we're off to Northemaire!
Skates and skies - What pleasant memories!
Ski slopes, sleigh rides,
And gatherings by the fireside.

Back to school - more on the solemn side
In our chapel - we each did reside,
To make this last retreat the best of all.
From God's living hands - may we never fall!

The month of February was the time For the Ball put on by S.G.A. And every lass helped form a line To dance in Chinatown, U.S.A.

It was one gala grand event
When seniors got the treasured present
Yes - on one very special Sunday
We joined the Rosary Alumnae.

The Author of the Summa had his day
Which we celebrated in cap and gown, a fine old way.
St. Patrick's Day brought our party for Mike
Our chance to tell him how much we like!
Our Mardi Gras spree landed many in "jail"
We begged, and we pleaded for just five cents bail!

May has the frenzy that comes at the close
The freshmen perform . . . our excitement grows.
We've teas for the brides and our mothers as well
And a crown for Our Lady to be our farewell.
And the best night of all, our very last chance
To "party" together . . . the Senior Dinner Dance.

"Beaming Mimi" - our prom chairman . . .

Behind the Scenes of Act IV

Yearbook, yearbook, shall we have a yearbook? Oh, no! Too much bother. Memory Book? That sounds fine! Let's get started. Class Officers get the ball rolling. The editors are off. Money collected. Staff organized (?) Following photographer. Pounding typewriters. Wearing down erasers. Rattling cobwebbed brains. Meeting deadlines (?) Final approvals. Anticipation. Here it is! Pulitzer Prize??

The editors wish to thank everyone for their assistance and cooperation, and in later years, as you look back to your college days, we hope this will help recall pleasant memories.
